HISTORY

The story started nineteen years ago...

In 1999, Pilipinos Sharing Smiles Together (PSST) was established to spread the Filipino culture and heritage at Troy High School. PSST held its first Pilipino Culture Night (PCN) on April 28, 2000 at Saint Irenaeus Catholic Church in Cypress to help showcase the beauty and richness of the Philippines. Two years later, in 2002, PSST presented the first Pilipino-American Culture Night (PACN) through the leadership of Xavier Hernandez, Minerva De Leon, and Karina Layugan. With the addition of skit and modern dances, PACN celebrated not only the culture of their parents and homeland, but also their American heritage.

In the many years since its establishment, PSST has grown to become one of the most well-known and popular clubs at Troy High School. Students of all different races and backgrounds congregate within our club to celebrate the Filipino culture.

PACN is an embodiment of the effort, dedication, passion, and talent that all our members have for this club. It is a cumulation of the many hours spent dancing, acting, and singing together. Tonight, PSST proudly presents its nineteenth annual PACN:

ADVISOR'S ADDRESS

Good Evening and Welcome!

It is my pleasure to have had the opportunity being the PSST advisor for 17 years. I have seen the growth of the organization from a handful of students to the powerhouse it is today. Out in the audience are alumni from those first years. Students then like today, have dedicated themselves to the same type of evening you are about to watch. Many of us are the children of immigrants from the Philippines and may not have that first hand knowledge of the homeland. But it is tonight and other events that remind us of who we are and where we come from. That every day we meet, we are Filipino and American. That every day we meet, we are Family. That every day we meet, we are One. The message of tonight is not just a story of Filipino families but of all families, all over the world, dealing with similar issues. And so the story of a Filipino family is the Human story that we can share and be that much closer to one another.

Enjoy the evening and Mabuhay!

Joseph "Jo-jo" Castillo
PSST Advisor

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Magandang gabi sa inyong lahat,

Good evening and welcome, to Troy High School's Pilipinos Sharing Smiles Together's 19th Annual Pilipino-American Cultural Night, "Pagalingin: Hearts on the Line."

Every year we are gathered here at PACN to celebrate the beauty of our Filipino culture. For the past 19 years, PSST has worked to not only preserve but to delve further into our culture to share and spread within our community, friends, and family. We express our love and appreciation through a well developed skit, carefully choreographed dances, and meaningful songs. Even though each year comes with different scenes, dances, and music, our goal has always remained the same: to not only connect with our audience through what we do but to show our commitment and strong bonds with one another on stage. Tonight, I encourage you all to not only open your minds but your hearts, as we put our hearts on the line to present our hard-work and devotion to what we do. We hope that you not only enjoy yourselves tonight, but that you are able to relieve whatever pressures you may have in life while we try and convey the message of our own pressures of life and how we make it through.

We, as a club, but more importantly, as a family, have worked months on end to learn lines, lyrics, and choreography that we are more than thrilled to share with you tonight. Working with all the members this year has brought me such joy and I am grateful for every single one of them. Every practice, the members give it their all to get everything perfected and I am proud to share the stage with them. This club gives us the chance to meet new people, work together, and form bonds that will last forever. The bonds we have grow stronger everyday and have made us the family you see before you. Working day after day for this PACN has made this show much more than just a performance for any of us. What you are about to experience is an embodiment of our dedication and passion for our culture which makes the countless hours during the weekdays, Saturday practices, run-throughs, and full-outs worth every second.

On behalf of our PSST family, I thank you all for coming tonight and I hope we inspire everyone to appreciate and hold on to the Filipino culture. As we have learned, it is important to hold on to our roots and embrace them. We encourage everyone to not only enjoy and really take in what you experience tonight, but to share a smile with one another, as we do everyday.

SKIT

Jason de la Cruz (Micol Cuizon) is a typical teenager trying to enjoy his life with his two best friends who've always got his back, Dominic Bruno (Glenn Alfante) and Anne Rosario (Ysabella Siangio). However, his unstable relationship with his father, Julian de la Cruz (Jerome Pabalan), has escalated to the point where fighting is just an inevitable daily routine in his household. In his attempt to bring out the best in his son Jason, Julian only continues to further strain their relationship. Jason believes Julian has no right to question him, as Julian has shown him no reason to listen. Jason even has to get his own job to help dig them out of the hole he believes Julian has dug for themselves.

Meanwhile, Julian, as a single parent, has his motivations in being so stern with his son, believing that his son will grow up not knowing the values of hard work. He has a secret of his own that will forever change the course of Jason's life. Will these two combatting hearts on the line be able to make things right before it's too late?

Director's Message

Jason's likability stems from his relatability, and we sympathize with his situation as it is one many of us face (or have faced) before. We're trying to show parental pressures can be overwhelming at times, but if we look back and try to understand from both perspectives, we can set things right before things get worse. The key thing is communication, because you don't know what you might end up regretting.

TRIBAL SUITE

CHOREOGRAPHED BY

Nicole Villegas, Joshua De Leon, Dylon Gaddi

In the southern regions, the Mindanao tribes create dances that represent their natural environment. Dances are dedicated "for the gods" and are performed gracefully. In most ancient cultures, their dances are connected through rituals, ceremonials, sacrifice, and life.

Idudu

Katerina Cervantes & Xavier Siangio
Rosa Snyder & Emerson Bangsil
Nanette Villegas & Dylan Vu
Nicole Villegas & Dylon Gaddi

Idudu is a tribal dance from the Abra province of Cordillera. This dance depicts the family life of the Itneg or Tinguian tribe. It tells the story of a father plowing the field as the mother cares for her children. In time, the father and mother exchange duties as the mother finishes planting and other chores in the field, and the father tends to the kids.

Blit B'laan

Joshua De Leon & Zoey Doria

Nicole Villegas

Katerina Cervantes
Zhiar'-a-nais Abegunde

Jerome Pabalan
Brandon Castro
Andrew Nguyen
Phillipe Manio

Blit B'laan is a traditional dance in which men will court their female love interests through imitating the movements of forest birds during the mating season. Within the dance, men will display romantic interests in many of the women present, and the women will display interest or disgust in their affection. Two of the men will ultimately decide to court a particular woman that stands out to them, leading to the men engaging in combat in order to compete for her love.

MARIA CLARA SUITE

CHOREOGRAPHED BY

Rowena Luminarias & Andrew Nguyen

During the Spanish period, the Western European way of life spread throughout the Islands. Along with them came European ballroom dances. The Filipinos welcomed these dances, and by adding native flare and style, made them their own. The Maria Clara Suite encompasses the elegance and charm of the mestiza Filipina as well as the gallantry and boldness of the mestizo Filipino. Courtship, love, and flirtation are all evident in this suite of romantic dances.

La Estudiantina

Whitney Agustin, Jasmine Arada, Giselle Fernandez, Victoria Hernandez, Michiko Mirabueno, Nanette Villegas

La Estudiantina is an energetic dance that originated in Atimonan, Quezon. This dance is performed by the daughters of privileged Filipinos during their days at the convent schools. The "estudiantinas," or female students, are seen holding a book in hand throughout this very lively dance.

Aray

Aray, which means "ouch" in Tagalog, is a Filipino form of the Spanish jota accompanied by sprightly steps and graceful use of tambourines. The dance itself is flirtatious and lively, and was popularized in Ermita, Manila.

KORDILYERA

CHOREOGRAPHED BY

Katrina Vergel de Dios, Joshua De Leon, Dylon Gaddi

Kordilyera is a name given by the Spanish Conquistadors when they first saw the mountain ranges. Meaning "knotted rope", the Spanish term refers to the jumbled rolls and dips of this long-range mountain traversing the northern part of Luzon Island.

Sakpaya

Jenna Linao, Jeremie Javellana, Savannah Ner, Marlena Mallari, Zhiar'a-nais Abegunde, Reanne Bangsil, Ysabella Siangio, Victoria Lashlee, Zoey Doria, Angelique Cobilla

The calloused hands of Ifugao farmers dig the hard soil and push heavy stones off cliffs to make way for a new rice field, part of the world-famous Banaue rice terraces. High-flying sakpaya birds swoop and hover over the terraces as the Ifugao toil. In times of plenty, the Ifugao farmers give thanks to their sakpaya "gods" by donning traditional costumes and imitating their flight in this dance.

Mangalop

Mangalop is a demonstration of the use of various tribal weapons such as spears and shields. This high speed, energetic, and entirely wild dance acts as a demonstration of the camaraderie and teamwork that comes about in a successful hunt or in battle. Rather than being a demonstration of warriors, the dance highlights the weapons used by each individual, and how they are essential in defining each warrior.

MORO SUITE

CHOREOGRAPHED BY

Katrina Vergel de Dios & Emerson Bangsil

The southern islands of the Philippines are wondrous and serene. Consisting of Mindanao and the Sulu Archipelago, the south is populated by many Filipinos who have been converted to the Islamic faith long before the Spanish inquisition took place. The dances of these islands are graceful, flowing, and fluid, much like the ocean that surrounds them. The spectacle of colorful and intricate attire and the mesmerizing sounds of the kulintang ensemble easily make these dances the most exotic of all Philippine dances.

The Singkíl originated from the Maranao people who inhabit the shores of Lake Lanao. It is derived from a story in the Darangen, the Maranao interpretation of the ancient Indian epic, the Ramayana. The name of the dance itself means "to entangle the feet with disturbing objects such as vines or anything in your path". It is a popular dance performed during celebrations and other festive entertainment. The lead dancer graciously steps in and out of closing bamboo poles arranged in either a parallel rectangular, or criss-cross fashion while manipulating fans in her hands. A kulintang and agung ensemble always accompanies the dance.

RURAL SUITE

CHOREOGRAPHED BY

Kristen Alfajora & Xavier Siangio

The Philippine countryside is a land bestowed with endless beauty. After a hard day's work, the rural people gather in their barrios and perform many impromptu and lively dances as a form of relaxation. These dances personify the many joys of work, of the surroundings, and of life among the simple country people.

Sakuting

Sakuting is a Philippine folk dance that interprets a fight between Ilocano Christians and non-Christians. This mock fight between rival folks is traditionally performed during Christmas. The dance is performed at the town plaza, or performed house-to-house as a form of traditional carolling show.

Pandanggo sa Ilaw

Kristen Alfajora & Alvin Robianes

Rowena Luminarias & Joshua De Leon

Kaila Ganzon & James Hazen

Zhiar'a-Nais Abegunde & Sean Sison

Pandanggo Sa Ilaw, meaning dance with lights, comes from Mindoro. This is the most difficult of all pandanggos. It is colorful and unusual; the female dancer gracefully and skillfully dances with three "tinghoy" or oil lamps - one on the head and two on the back of each hand.

Tinikling

CHOREOGRAPHED BY

Kristen Alfajora & Katrina Vergel de Dios

The "Tikling" bird is a bird with long legs and a long neck. The "Tinikling" dance, therefore, imitates the movements of the "Tikling" birds as they walk between grass stems or run over tree branches. Skill is beautifully demonstrated in dancing between the bamboos and in keeping the feet from being caught between the bamboo poles. There is much fun when the bamboo players catch the feet of the dancers. This dance is a favorite in the Visayan Islands, especially in the province of Leyte.

PSST

to my PSST family:

And just like that, let the post PACN depression begin. All those countless hours of hard-work have resulted in yet another successful PACN. I am so thankful for everyone's time and effort that everyone has put into making the show possible.

Freshmen: You guys have been our newbies this year and I am proud of all of you for making it this far and putting yourselves out there to be part of the show. That feeling of being in your first PACN accompanied by the rush of stepping on that stage to the thrill of taking the final bow after roll call is something you will always remember. May the friends you meet in this club become family and a special part of your high school career.

Sophomores: I hope your second year was as memorable as it was for the rest of us. I know this class is pretty small but it's okay! The bond you guys have now will only grow stronger as you transition into juniors next year. Next year will also come with more challenges as upperclassmen. May you find the balance between the stressful study times dedicated to school and good times and memories that will help you through it all.

Juniors: You guys were upperclassmen this year and the friendships you have were part of what kept you all going. I know this past year must have been rough, but you're almost done. Next year, you guys will be the seniors, the oldest in the club, the ones that will lead next year to another PACN. Make next year as memorable as you can as seniors and make sure you don't slack off. You still have to get through college apps and keep your grades up before you can let the senioritis really sink in.

Seniors: We've finally made it. Four years of laughter, tears, and ups and downs, have brought us here to our last one. We may have lost some people along the way but new friendships have been made and we are as close as ever. I wish us the most amazing last few months of high school and the best of luck as we turn 18 and go off to college. We only have a few months left together so let's make the most of it. You guys have been such a big part of my high school years and I couldn't have made it here without you.

WaspBoard Abs: We had some rough times but we all pulled through at the end. I hope all those meetings, late nights, and perseverance through the rough times were all worth it to you. I saw each one of you grow not only as a person, but into the leaders you are now. To those that are going to be on board again next year, good luck and use what you have learned this year as you continue share smiles with everyone.

My Family: I am extremely grateful for you always standing by my side. To my parents, you guys never fail to show your support and love for me. I would not be the person I am today without your guidance and motivation to make me the best I can be. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to do what I love and for always being there. I love you.

My #1, God: Thank you for blessing me with the loved ones, friends, and life I have. Thank you for guiding me through whatever I encounter, for giving me the will to keep going, and the chance to do what I love.

Katrina Vergel de Dios

President '17-'18 | PACN Director '16-'17 | Secretary '15-'16

dear PSST family,

i can't believe that 4 years of being in PSST are coming to a close very soon. being in this club taught me so much about leadership, friendship, and love. psst taught me that family can also be the one you choose. thank you, PSST, for making me laugh every day, without fail. thank you for giving me an outlet to dance and to sing and for teaching me so much about both of those things. my time in this club has been truly unforgettable and will carry the lessons with me for many years to come.

to the freshmen: hello young'ns. you guys are so full of life and energy and i really love that about you. each and every one of you stepped out of your comfort zone to join this club. all members can attest to how difficult and scary it is to approach a group as tight-knit as PSST, but i hope that after all of this you truly feel like a part of this family. thank you for putting so much effort and dedication into a cultural club, all for the thrill of just one night. i hope that your time in this club was just as memorable as mine was, and that you continue to be a part of this special group. i see so much potential in each of you and know that you will go so far!

to the sophomores: you may be small and humble in number but even the smallest seed can grow into the biggest tree! but maybe it'll stay a small plant and that's ok too. it's your second year in high school, another spot up the totem pole, and there's still so much to go. keep up with your grades!!! get enough sleep!! and dont drink so much boba. thank you for bringing me a lot of joy in the two years i've had with you. i hope you will continue to be a part of this club and that you add even more to your number.

to the juniors: you are one loud boisterous bunch and i'm really glad you've found each other. there really is an undeniable chemistry between the members of your class. i'm sure it was hard to balance homework with practice and church and all the other extracurriculars you high achievers have. you've heard this countless times before, but this is an important year and make sure you finish strong! you're all so smart and hardworking, i know you can do it. you'll be the leaders of this club next year. i hope you continue to embody what this club stands for and that you keep the psst spirit alive.

to the seniors: whether you joined this club when we were freshmen or just this year, it's incredible how much i love you guys. thank you for making my senior year so amazing. thanks for help in human anatomy labs and helping each other find our google chromebooks and studying for ap econ tests together. love you. wherever you end up in college, i know you're going to go so far.

to the alumni: i love all of you so much. my four years here are nothing without you, and even though you've graduated and gone your separate ways, you're all still in my heart. thank you for continuing to support us and love us. thank you for making me laugh and for giving me so many beauitful memories. i wish you the best of luck in all your endeavors to board: CAME IN CLUTCH EVERY TIME. even now LOL. you guys were all such an important part of my senior year. thank you for stepping up to the plate and taking a leadership position in this club. pacn is you. thank you for your dedication and cooperation and passion for this club. as we pass the torch to you, i hope you will continue to lead psst to do great things, no matter what happens. love you, waspboard abs to my family: thank you for continuing to love and support me through my years here; for giving me rides, and waiting for me when practice ran longer than expected, and for all that you have done for this club. i love you so much.

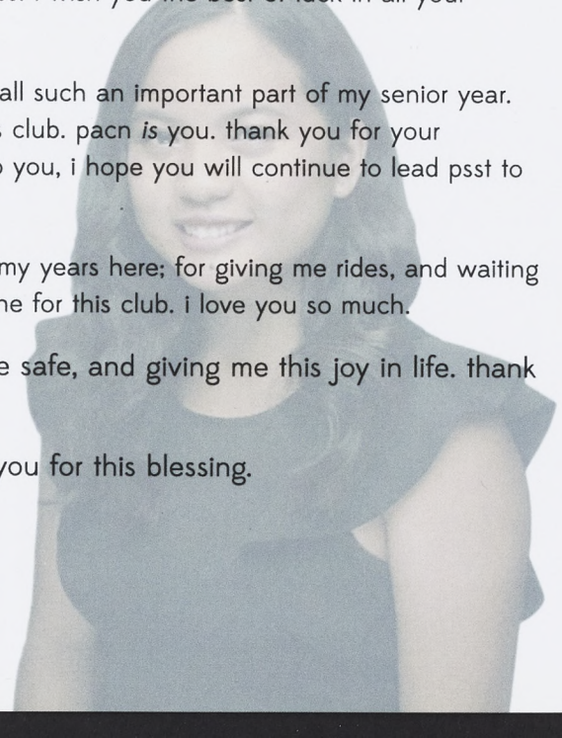
to God: thank You for guiding me through every obstacle, keeping me safe, and giving me this joy in life. thank You for a blessed 4 years in PSST!

this club and its members shaped who i am today. once again, thank you for this blessing.

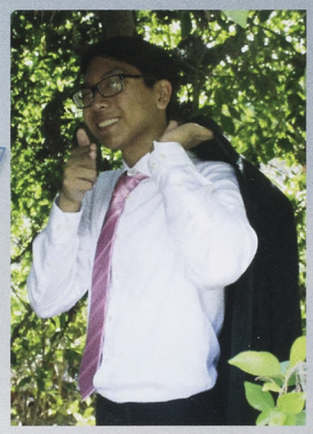
sincerely,

Kristen Candace Alfajora

VP 2017-2018 • PUBLICIST 2015-2016 • MEMBER 2014-FOREVER



~~Dear PSST Family~~



For years, PSST has been a central figure in defining my high school experience. What makes this club so entirely worth the commitment is when I see every single member out there contributing to the theme of "Sharing Smiles Together :) ". I am thrilled to be one of your PACN Directors this year, and I can't wait to see what awaits in my fourth and final chapter of PSST. Every PACN has been an unforgettable experience for me, and I can only hope that it has impacted all of you in the same way.

Freshmen: Woot woot! One PACN down, and hopefully 3 more to go. I know a lot of you were dragged into this club because of sibling relationships, but I'm glad you all decided to remain dedicated. I want you to remember that thrill of your first PACN, the bonds you've forged throughout the year, and most importantly, all the joy PSST has put into your hearts, because that is what makes this club worth it.

Sophomores: Oof (Yeah I'm opening with an oof) your class is definitely the smallest (in terms of height and numbers) but even so, you guys still hold a major impact on the club. Your class adds on to all the laughs and hard work that PSST holds on to at its core values. I couldn't picture my PACN experience without y'all.

Juniors: You know, at the start of it all (Freshmen year) there weren't really that many of us, BUT BOY DID THAT CHANGE! I couldn't have possibly asked for a better group of batchmates. It's simply astounding how the PSST experience has brought us all closer than ever before. With every new face that joined our class, unforgettable memories were sure to follow.

Seniors: From Freshmen year up until now, the thought of the Seniors I've grown to love graduating and leaving this club has rained down pretty heavy on me. This year, that sensation definitely hasn't become any easier. :(Congrats on your final PACN and best wishes to all of you in your college years. I hope that you guys never forget everything you've experienced because of this club.

eSKITit: Words simply can't describe how proud I am of your performances. You guys played a major role in making this year's PACN as unforgettable as it is, and I'd like to thank you all for your dedication.

Board: This year was a definite success in my books. Throughout the year, we as a group have applied the principles of hard work and dedication, and still retained the strong bonds that define this club. Xavier: You made this year Xtra savvy lol. Rowena: You helped move me and a lot of other people into rowe, rowe, rowe my boat. Thanks! Andrew: You've gone through a lot this year, but still remained dedicated. Keep your chin up, you've got a bright future in this club. Nicole: I've known you since like 2nd grade, and who would've guessed we'd end up this close? My "Smashing" Directors: It's so wild to imagine that the script that we wrote was displayed for the audience. I'll always hold this particular PACN close to my heart because it's the one we made together. Kristen: You've really hatched out of your egg and shined as a leader. Katrina: All of our accomplishments as a board wouldn't have been possible without you. Thanks for an unforgettable year!

De Leon/Mahinan Family: Thank you all for your continuous support! I'm able to entirely dedicate my heart and soul into this club because you all lift me up to rise to the occasion. PSST has weighed down on you guys since Christopher joined, then Francis, and I'm sorry for that, but there's only one more year to go with me :)

Committed to serve!

Joshua De Leon

PACN Director 2017-2018

Freshman: Ayy, congrats on your first PACN, and hopefully there are 3 more to come. You guys actually work pretty hard for a freshman class, and I think it's really cool. A lot of your guys' enthusiasm makes me really happy, and you guys make me confident that there is a bright future ahead for PSST.

Sophomores: You guys are a smaller group, but there are a lot of big personalities. You guys are also the future of PSST, so be prepared. For me, Junior year has definitely been as hard as people say it is, but I know a lot of you guys are smart and hardworking so you'll probably do better than me :). I was able to grow closer to some of you guys after last PACN, and I'm excited to grow even closer in the following year(s). Continue sharing smiles with everyone you see.

Juniors: I'm close with most of you guys so I'll keep it short and sweet. I just want to say that I really love you guys. You guys help me to have fun, to think positively, and of course with homework and schoolwork. Junior year seems to be as bad for everyone else as it is for me, but we're almost seniors so don't give up! I've learned from you guys that to survive sometimes we really just need to mess around and have some fun.

Seniors: Despite not being one of the largest classes, you guys are definitely the leaders of PSST. With a lot of board and coords being seniors, I personally want to say thank you. You guys work really hard. Even those who aren't on board/coords still always manage to bring a smile to my face or make me laugh . You guys are the backbone of PSST, and I speak for everyone in saying that we will miss you. I wish you guys luck on your next chapter in life, and if it's anything like how you were in PSST, then you should be very successul.

Sincerely,

Dylon Gaddi

DEAR PSST FAMILY:

FRESHMEN: HELLOO guys. Congrats on having come this far. I hope you've finally come to realize the true amazingness of this club. I'm glad you all have joined our family and hope that you all continue to be a part of it. Other than that um you guys are actually pretty weird HAHA but its cool Hope you had fun :)

SOPHOMORES: Hola everybody I hope this PACN was better than your last. Thanks for sticking around. I hope you guys continue to grow (not just physically) but to love this club more and more ya. Ok other than that ty guys luv ya

JUNORS: JUNIORESS THANKS GUYS U GUYS ARE THE GREATEST WE OFC KILLED THIS PACN! I hope we continue to multiply and make next year the best year! Other than that I luv you guys all of you are amazing. AND ALSO WE ABT TO TAKE OVER 1 more year! HAHA gl everyone LGI!

SENIORS: Oh mi oh my you guys are leaving :(Don't cry it's ok I will miss you too I'm glad to have met EVERY single one of you. And I believe that I have established at least a decent realtionship with all of you so thats pretty fun but yeah. I wish you all the best of luck on your journey to the place beyond high school. Ty for being our seniors and just being you. Continue to be the crazy bunch that you are but never forget the second family from where you all came from. :)

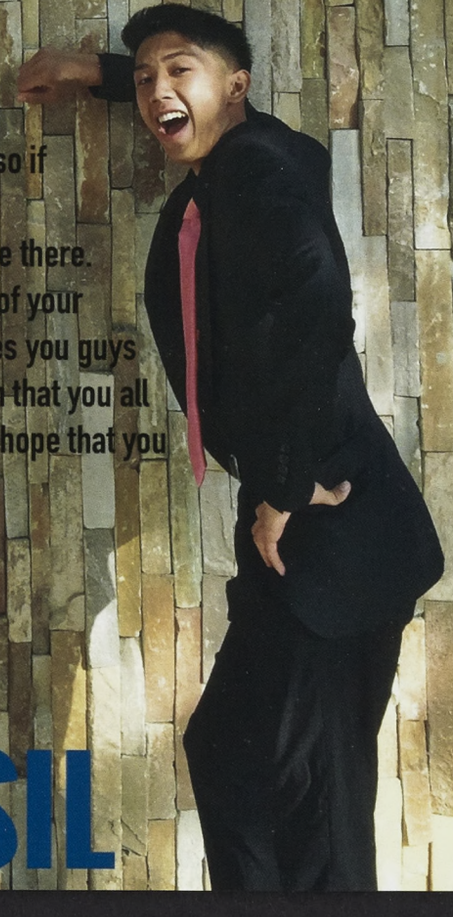
BOARD: hey guys so imma be honest don't get mad at me but I'm still confused with what our board name is but. . . but . . . but I have an idea that I think you will all be happy with and it's kind of a throwback from last year. We used it for like 5 minutes but I think it would be cool if we used the name.. EMERBOARD . . . ikr its pretty good. We'll use it one more time just for like a day. Heh other than that WE DID IT AND NOW I AM HAPPY AND I HOPE WE ARE ALL HAPPY! I want to thank everyone for all the effort and hard work put in. I hope all the stress was worth it. I wanna say were done but I'm secretly hoping we arent cuz its gonna be sad not having an excuse to see everyone and just hangout lol Thanks for everything though. I luv you guys

Ok so now i will attempt to call this out so when you read this you gotta stretch out your arm ok so do it with me

OKAY GUYS EMERBOARD ON 3 1..2..3 EMERBOARD yayy.. yea ik that was lame :)

FAMILY: Heyyy guys so im done with practices and I have a lot more free time now so if any of you want to hangout now Im totally down

But im pretty sure I have a thing next week so Im gonna need one of you to drive me there. Haha but other than thank you guys, mom and dad, ate and reanne I appreciate all of your support and I apologize for not saying that more. Im thankful for all the opportunities you guys have allowed me to have and I will continue to strive toward the top of the mountain that you all believe I will reach in the in the future. I love and thank you all for everything and I hope that you will continue to not only support me but believe in me thoughout the years.



Much love,

EMERSON BANGSIL

dear PSST FAMILY,

Yellow! Thank you to everyone for making our 19th annual PACN a memorable one. I am so proud of all of you for your time, dedication, & hard work put in for OUR show. I've had unforgettable memories with this club, this family & will forever be grateful for all the love & bonding we've had with each other.

FRESHMEN: Woah, congrats on completing your first PACN! I know that there are more of you in the club than those who actually participated, so I encourage the rest of you to step up next year! I would like to thank you for being a part of this amazing family! You guys are a crazy bunch & never fail to make me laugh.

SOPHOMORES: Oh! For most of you, congrats on your second PACN! You are already halfway through high school! I'm so glad that I've gotten close with each & every one of you & I hope you all stick together as a group. I have one more year with y'all, LGI!

JUNIORS: OKAY, so remember freshmen year where there were only 7 of us active in the club? Well look at our group now! We literally makeup the population of PSST! Ahh I'll forever cherish the times we've had with one another. Fr tho, s/o to our group chat for its liveliness. I can definitely say that this has been our toughest year yet, so let's make some new memories till the end!

SENIORS: Hey, this was your last PACN! How do you feel? Senioritis maybe? It's unbelievable that you guys are leaving us in a few months. Good luck in college!

WASPBOARDABS: WE did it! I'm so thankful that we got each other through this PACN season ahhh, we're amazing! But I just wanna say that I wasn't sure that this was our board name till the moment I wrote this LOL. I'm so glad that the several nests of wasps above us during our board meetings were finally taken down. PHEW I can finally look up without the fear of being stung.

KATRINA: Thanks for being our commander! I'm glad we've gotten closer on board this year and that I am taller than you lol. Let's make the most out of your last few months, yeah? KRISTEN: We were navigators?! LOL I will always laugh at that time I wanted Poke & we went out with Julia & she drove... HAHA that was fun. JOSHUA: Hey dude, you were my Fisler buddy & it's crazy how we've grown since then. I still don't understand why Natalie is your best friend.. But thanks for always making me laugh & for being a great friend! DYLON: Vro I am also taller than you LOL. It was great teaching with you, digging & ricing together! :) EMERSON: HAHA I dare you to take the next extra credit shot, okay? ANDREW: Orange Shorts! I give credit to myself for giving you this nickname when we played that one game after practice. You really had that obsession with the color last year it was so cute. ROWENA: Thanks for being an amazing person & a wonderful board sister! Lee is truly our fave! XAVIER: I don't know if you or your siblings remember but I used to see you guys in Kumon when we were younger LOL.

MR. LEE: Props to you since my freshmen year! Man it's our third year at Troy & you're still my favorite dude. Even today, I can always walk into your class whenever I please. You always put a smile on my face & bless me with a 'good luck high five.' I'm thankful for those pep talks you gave me these few years whenever I needed one. Thank you for having Jasmine, Whitney & I sit towards the front of your class in that fun triangle. I'm pretty sure Emerson was somewhere in the back lol. Stay plaid, Lee.

JASMINE & WHITNEY: WASSUP twisted sisters & the virgin mary! Thank you for being the bestest friends ever! From Greys Anatomy, to the chicken #nugget days, I will forever treasure those memories & many more to come. ILY chicas!

VILLEGAS FAMILY: Mom, Dad, Nanette & Natalie, thank you for supporting me through my high school journey so far! I know I'm a pain sometimes but I'm thankful for all that you do for me.

LOVE,

Nicole Villegas

~ PSST SECRETARY 17-18 ~

To my PSST Family,

Thanks for everyone to coming out to our 19th annual PACN! This school year has thrown many challenges at me but this club has helped me lessen stress and be able to branch out to more people. Everyone has helped me to go outside of my box and do things that i'm not comfortable with, which ultimately helped me become a better person.

Freshmen: Congrats on your first PACN! I hope you enjoyed the experience and had fun. Personally I think you are all really energetic and fun (maybe too much sometimes). But, I was probably more wild than you guys last year. I hope you all stay in psst for the years to come and maybe run for board ;)

Suffermores (Sophomores): The sophomores are by far my most favorite class!! Even though we are small in numbers we make up for it in everything else hehe. I know that our small class size has caused people to stray away but don't worry let's pull a class of 2019 and get more people next yr!!

Hooniors (Juniors): I have no idea how you guys have so many active people but great job! You guys are really fun and loud and VERY cringy... thanks for helping me with my hw <3!

Sin yours (Seniors): I got close to you all this year and sat with y'all during 6th this entire year and made everyone look at us bc we play our music too loud and sing super loudly. It was a great way to spend our last year together. Good Luck in college!

Sincerely, Andrew Nguyen

Dear PSST Family,

Thank you so much for another year full of joy and laughter. The unforgettable memories we made this year have all lead up to another successful PACN.

Freshies Congrats on your first PACN! Thank you for your constant dedication and hard work. I know it takes a lot to step out of your comfort zone, especially during your first year of high school, but I'm happy you've found a family to rely on! I hope your love for this club only grows throughout highschool. Love you cuties!

Sophs 2 down, 2 to go! Thank you for your loud and crazy presence. Regardless of size, your impact on PSST is huge. I hope you stay as wild and funny as you enter your junior year. It will be a tough one forsure, but remember you've got the whole fam behind you!

Juniors I love you guys so much! If junior year is an endless night, you're the stars that light up my sky. I know it's been hard on all of us, but I'm proud of how far each and every one of you have come. I'm so blessed to be a part of a group as dynamic and wild as ours. I could write on and on about all of you, but I'll do that senior year when we actually have time to do things LOL. I just want to thank you for your constant support. We've made such incredible memories together, and I'm so excited for the memories to come.

Seniors Thank you. You guys are the backbone of our group, and we literally could not have grown as people without you. Thank you for pushing us to do our best and teaching us the importance of family and hardwork. I pray that your future beyond high school is full of meaningful and incredible experiences. Love you guys!

Waspboard Trina and Kristen, you guys have poured so much time and effor into our family. Thank you for being the older sisters this club needed! I wish you the best in college. Emerson, Dylon, and Josh, congratulations on your successful skit. I hope it was all you dreamed of and more. Love, Penelope. Nicole, board sister! You've grown into a true leader this year and I can't wait to see how much you'll grow. Andrew, thank you so much for your hard work. I know you've got a lot going on, but you've really stepped up this year; you should be proud of yourself! Xavier, I know your future will be more successful than your Word Hunt scores. LOL love you guys!

Mom & Dad Thank you all for always encouraging me to do my best in everything I do. Thank you for driving me to all the practices, and waiting those extra minutes when they run too long. Even if you want me to study all the time, you guys are my real teachers. I'm so blessed to have such wonderful, amazing parents. I love you so much!

Ate, Kuya & Bentley You guys are the best siblings ever. Tay Charms, you're my BFF sis! I love all our adventures, and I'm so lucky to have such a fun and crazy older sister in my life. Koya, thank you for inspiring me to do what I love every day. I'm so proud of your dedication and hardwork. Thank you for being so chill and understanding, and giving me the best life advice. I can't wait to see how successful you both will be. You're the coolest older sibls in the world! And Bentley, thank you for being the cutest dog ever, love you beanhead.

Rowena Luminarias

PSST Publicist 2017-2018

To PSST Family,

I'd prefer to write you all individual notes, but that would take up too much space.

Freshmen

First PACN! Hopefully you now see why we're willing to put so much time and effort into this club. You guys are a big class, and a lot of you seem pretty close already. So all I wanna say is keep close, be nice to next year's freshmen, and enjoy the next three years of the club. It goes by faster than you know. Oh and since I won't be around next year do me a solid and be really annoying to my sister in my stead.

Sophomores

Y'all are kinda hard to write to as a class. Freshmen just had their first PACN, seniors just had their last, juniors are almost seniors, and you guys are just awkwardly floating in the middle. That being said, you guys are a small class, so I've had the unfortunate pleasurable experience of knowing most of you on a personal level. You're all pretty cool (even Miggy). Just try to keep your heads above water next year when you stop floating and start sinking.

s/o to Zimbabwe bc she asked.

Juniors

Hey, you survived. Welcome to your last year. I don't have much to say about you guys as a class that you guys don't already know, so instead I'm gonna focus on the fact that you guys are gonna be seniors now. You guys are gonna be the ones guiding the club. I think you guys are gonna do fine. But feel free to do better.

Seniors

Is it weird that for the past three years this class was the one I interacted with the least? I'm glad that changed this year. I'm also glad that a lot of those interactions involved food. Let's keep having kbbq runs until we split off for college. Or until Micol goes negative again. Whichever comes first.

Waspboard

It's been a good run, weird name, but good run. Thanks again for dealing with me. I'm glad I was able to pass down any part of what I got from this club. For those staying on, I said this to the freshmen, but it applies to you guys even more: enjoy the experience. Savor it. It ends pretty fast.

Special thanks to my parents, a giant old man in the sky, and one of my cousins for helping me keep it together.

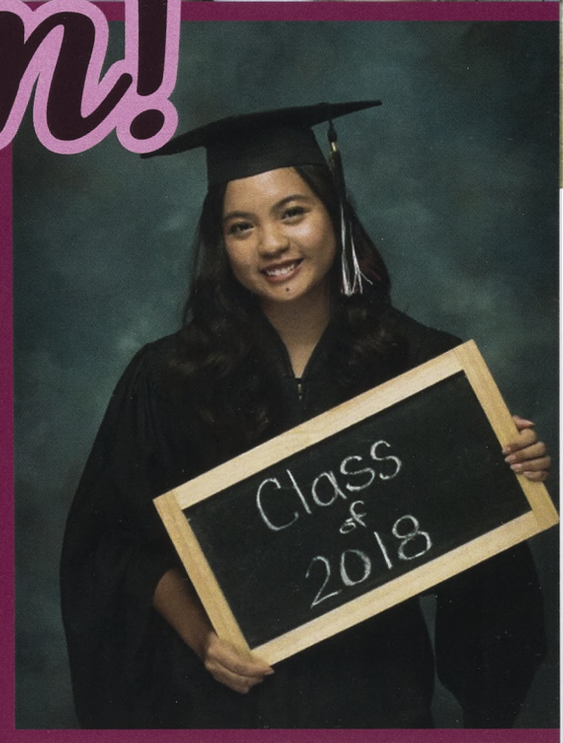
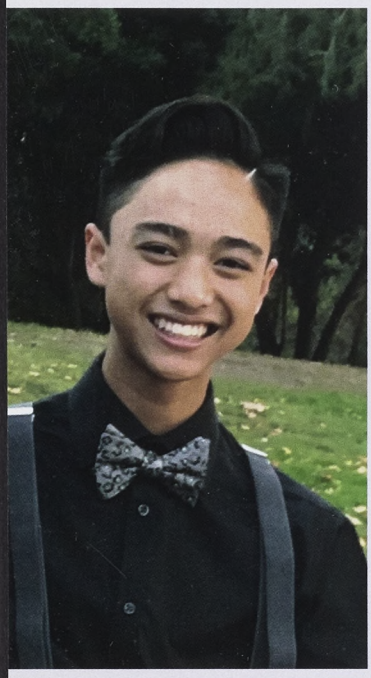
CONGRATULATIONS on your 4th PACN, kristen!



Congratulations! We are so proud of your involvement in this club over these four years. You have sacrificed time and time again and shown how hardworking and dedicated you are, no matter what you do. We hope that you will carry this same passion throughout your life. We hope that the memories, laughter, people, and lessons you learned stay with you for many years to come.

LOVE,

Mom, Dad, Megan, and Shannon



Congratulations Katrina and Miguel on another successful PACN! We are so proud of what you've accomplished. Love you!
